As always it's advisable to check with the venues before travelling, as shows have in the past been unfortunately cancelled at the last moment. Tickets for the London Show are available from The Freak Emporium (+ 44 1753 893008) priced £10 each plus a £1.50p booking fee per ticket and 50p postage per order (or send an Self Addressed Envelope with payment)

FORTHCOMING RELEASES

There will be a double vinyl reissue of 'Yellow Hedgerow Dreamscape' towards the end of November. This release will be a high quality audiophile pressing in a heavy duty US style, gatefold sleeve. With extensive sleeve notes and a new track - the Hawkwind like "Out" - replacing "The Cross" from the original album, it will be pressed in an edition of 1000 copies, 500 of which will be on yellow vinyl. The album will be available direct, as are most PT releases, from The Freak Emporium at £25 (UK) including postage, £28 (Europe) and £30 (Rest Of The World).

In order to satisfy all you vinyl junkies out there "Stupid Dream" will also see a release on vinyl soon. Vinyl is not a format that is in great demand so the price is unfortunately high, particularly when it is such a short run in lavish packaging. However, Porcupine Tree do insist that the quality is of the best possible, and those of you who were sent replacement Metanoia discs will realise how concerned the band are with this issue.

The complete remixed 'Voyage 34' CD is now scheduled for release sometime in the year 2000 and a Delerium Years 'best of' - with rarities - will also be out some time in the year 2000.
